PETITIONING THE COURT

- ☐ To issue a warrant
☒ To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1

The offender has violated the special supervision condition which states 'Residential Rentry Center placement (3 months without weekend privileges)

You shall reside for a period of 3 months in a community corrections center, halfway house or similar residential facility and shall observe all the rules of that facility. You shall not be eligible for weekend privileges. You shall pay subsistence as required by the program.'

The offender was sanctioned to three months community corrections to be served at Toler House, located in Newark, New Jersey. He arrived at the facility on September 21, 2010, and was discharged as a program failure on September 22, 2010, at 10:00 a.m.

Upon arrival at Toler House, residents must complete a urinalysis drug screen test. The test must be completed within two hours of the resident's arrival to the facility. The offender did not complete the urinalysis for eight hours, thus being six hours past the required time. He received an incident report for this infraction.

When questioned by faculty on the following day, the offender admitted to using Percocet and Xanax prior to entering Toler House. Additionally, when questioned further, the offender stated he may also have marijuana in his system.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
